

Message from the Goddess Mother

By Jan Diana Art by Maryam Morrison My Beloved children,

"It is with great joy that I greet you this day, as I wish to share with you a special message from my very heart to your heart. As we discussed last month, you are in the midst of great change on your sweet planet. These changes you have afraid of what seems like the unknown? chosen, prayed for, planned for and have been preparing for. It is a time of great My answer to you dear ones is to cencelebration as you climb the stairway of freedom, to be, to do and live as you desire.

It is also a time to embrace the light as it ways of guidance and instruction. shines ever so brightly, reflecting more of the divine truth of you and of all that is. To ride the waves of the many changes, by flowing with it, embracing the light, allowing it to open your heart to come into greater awareness of the truth, and releasing the ropes of resistance, makes it possible for your ride to be enjoyed and to be experienced in greater harmony.

Imagine if you will, the heavens opening up with messages that speak to your very heart. Your heart knows the divine place. Trust your heart and allow yourself to feel the loving guidance that is offered to you.

Your heart knows the grace and the joy of your divine nature. It also knows of your great desire to remember the truth of yourself. Your heart has been actively lighting pathways leading you to greater awareness, to be able to recognize the sweetness that is your authentic self.

You might ask, how may we feel peace dear Mother, how may we embrace the light, when we have struggles in our lives and at times it seems so hopeless for us? How may we know the truth and not be ter yourself in your heart. As you become accustomed to feeling this connection, you will feel drawn to further discoveries of what you heart has to offer you in the

This is a gift, a tool, a blessing that is available for each of you. It has been perhaps forgotten by many and now we are in great celebration for it truly is the time to remember this blessing.

In truth you have never been separate from your heart, as it sings to you and radiates the love that flows to you always and in all ways. In a moment of forgetting, it may have not been recognized as the loving guiding presence that has been and always will guide and direct you on truth of you and of the plans that are in your life's journey. It is now time to remember this sacred part of yourself and to use it to bless yourself, to rise above what has been perceived as realities of less, into the realms of your heart that you have dreamed and been preparing for. Within the heart there are no limitations, only authentic truth of your divinity, the essence of your sacred forever lightness of spirit and truth.
